Creative industry experience exchange

Il would like to share my experience as a young entrepreneur, designer and artisan, my business is like a one man show; I do everything starting from marketing my designs to distributing them among galleries, I would like to gain experience from other entrepreneurs about how did they face the issues relating to their business like the financial and marketing issues, and how to save the copyrights of my designs and products.
I wish we could share our fruitful experience together.
