Learning from the most successful people in the private business

Take advantage of the experiences of people in the international labor market and exchange views on the latest methods used in business management.

We are a successful pioneer company in Gaza and we are preparing the most famous hotel in it. Through my participation, I want to make use of the experts in this field.

Next to the hotel I work as general manager of the largest commercial mall in the city and I think through my participation I will benefit greatly to develop all my work and also the work that I manage.
